A quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Beach on Sunday evening, June 3th, when Miss Clarice was united in marriage to Clare M. Allen. Besides the immediate families Miss Gladys Hoodmaker and Earl Polmonteer of Almena who acted as bridesmaid and best man were present. Miss Clarice looked very winsome gowned in white and carrying a beautiful cluster of Lillies of the Valley presented by the grooms mother. After the ceremony a luncheon was served with Miss Atha and Miss Mildred, sisters of the bride and groom acting as waitresses.

The young couple left for Kalamazoo and returned Monday evening. They will be at home later in the house that is being prepared for them. They have the best wishes of their numerous friends. The ceremony was performed by Elder Kitzmiller.
